MONASTERY OF THE DISCALCED CARMELITES OF SAN JOSÉ

Second Foundation of Saint Theresa

Founded by Saint Theresa in August 15th, 1567 it is considered the second house of the reformed Carmelo. The original rooms of the foundation, which are kept intact since then, can be visited in small groups following this itinerary: The museum of Saint Theresa, in which artistic works, personal belongings and Saint Theresa's relics are displayed; The original room where the first meeting with Saint John of the Cross took place; The old courtyard with the "Passage of the Saint", a perfect example of traditional architecture from the 16th century in Medina del Campo; Two cells of the old convent in which the austerity of the Carmelite Reform is stated; The original cell of Saint Theresa reconverted to oratory chapel in 1682 and the convent church, built between 1596 and 1603 according to the traditional canon followed by convent temples of the age.
